

Scissoring.

Oh, dearest mother, I remember
How you used to wallow me,
Ore a just so wonderful tender,
Faithful you used to scissor me,
And yet I'm forced to own the scorn,
I well deserved a precious drubbing,
As I returned with imitations torn,
And duty after careful scissoring.

The people who send money to newspaper offices, with a request to send the paper as long as the money lasts, are respectfully informed that generally speaking, the money don't last long.

The editor of the Alabama Transcript says that the New York Day Book is set up entirely by girls, and adds that he should like to set up with them.—Probably!

A traveler in a stage coach, not famous for its swiftness, inquired the name of the coach. A fellow passenger replied "I think it is the Regulator, for I observe all the other coaches go by it."

"I'm the youngest of sixteen," said a fine young girl, just budding into womanhood, to an aspirant for her smiles. "Gracious!" cried he, "your mother must have been quite—quite—a—multum in parvo!"

The girls think of Hyacinth, and can't help sighing. Why their lovers forsake them, they can't help crying. They sit at the windows, and can't help spying.—They screw up their corsets, bring on consumption, and can't help dying.

Two friends were conversing about an acquaintance, then in Cuba, where Yellow Jack was raging, one of them remarked that he was surprised their mutual friend the fearful epidemic. The other answered that it was no wonder at all as he was to lye too catch anything.

A man wrote to his friend abroad, asking him to purchase books. He neglected to execute the commission; but fearing that his friend might be offended, he exclaimed, when next they met, "My dear friend, I never got the letter when you wrote to me about the books."

Joe says—"Sam, I have lost my watch overboard; it lies here in twenty feet water. Is there any way to get it out."

"Yes," says Sam, "there are divers ways."

"Mrs. Sprigs, will you be helped to a small piece of the turkey?" "Yes my dear Mr. Wilkins, I will." What part would you prefer, my dear Mrs. Sprigs? I will have a couple of wings, a couple of legs, some of the breast, the side bone, some filling, and a few dumplings—as I feel very unwell to day!" Mr. Wilkins fainted.

ARABIAN SAND.—The sand of the Arabian desert, on minute examination, is found to consist of small globular of carbonate of lime, similar to those grains which compose oolites. It is probable that the spherical form is given to them by abrasion against each other, caused by the winds; and should water, charged with lime, at any future time pass over them, they may be converted into stone.

MEASUREMENT OF HAY IN BULK.—Multiply the length, breadth and height of the hay into each other, and if the hay is somewhat settled, ten solid yards will way a ton. Clover will take eleven or twelve yards to a ton.

THINGS WE DECIDEDLY OBJECT TO.—We decidedly object to the first-floor lodger coming home in a state of inebriation, and getting into our bed with his boots on.

We decidedly object to a waiter always telling us he's coming and never doing it.

We decidedly object to a young lady with her hair done up in newspaper advertisements.

We decidedly object to an infatuated dramatist reading us the manuscript of his five-act tragedy.

We do decidedly object to a baby dabbling his damp little hand about your face, while the mother stands by, and remarks that the little dear is beginning to "take notice."

We decidedly object to a doctor telling us, in a friendly way, that our family were always noticed for weak chests.

We decidedly object to a person mistaking us for his mortal enemy, and giving us a tremendous blow on the back under the conviction.

We decidedly object to a man always laughing at his own jokes, and never laughing at ours.

We decidedly object to any one purloining our good things, and palming them off as his own.

We decidedly object to a tailor's man bringing home a coat, and bawling out in the passage that his master told him not to leave it without the money.

And we decidedly object to sharp children, lawyer's letters, damp shirt collars, amateur performances, tight boots and an unbroken trickling down our back.

Shop-keeper—"That's a bad fifty cent piece, Sir.—I can't take it, it's only lead silvered over."

Customer—"Well, now, admittin such to be the fact, I should say that the ingenuity displayed in the deception might induce you to accept it. Admire, sir, the devotion of the artist to the divine idea of Liberty. Liberty—the idol of us all, He, having wrought her effigy in humble metal, resorts to the harmless expedient of silvering it over. And shall we harshly repudiate his work? Oh, no, sir, you'll let me have you a'll!"

PROSPECTUS OF ST. MARY'S COLLEGE.

NEAR LEBANON, MARION CO., KY.
This Literary Institution, founded in 1851, by the late Rev. WILLIAM BYRNE, and subsequently conducted for many years by the Jesuits, is now under the superintendence of the Right Rev. Bishop of Louisville, who will always take means to provide a suitable faculty for carrying it on with a view to promote the greatest public good. Under the auspices of its previous conductors, the Institution has been instrumental in widely diffusing the blessings of a religious education throughout Kentucky and the adjoining States.—The steadiness of its patronage has been a constant evidence of the public approval. The beauty and salubrity of the situation, as well as the spaciousness and commodiousness of the College Buildings, are generally known. It will be the constant aim of the Faculty to adopt, so far as practicable, the plan which it was so well and so usefully conducted by its enlightened and benevolent Founder.

Scott's Weekly Paper.

The Publishers of this large and popular Family Journal offers for the coming year, (1885) a combination of Literary attractions heretofore unattempted by any of the Philadelphia Weeklies. Among the new features will be a new and brilliant series of Original Romances by George Lippard, entitled "Legends of the Last Century." All who have read Mr. Lippard's celebrated Legends of the American Revolution published for fifty-six consecutive weeks in the Saturday Courier, will find these pictures of French and American History endowed with all the power and brilliancy of his previous productions. The first of a series of Original Novellelles, called "Morris Hartley," or the Knights of the Mystic Valley, by Harrison B. Ainsworth, is about to be commenced. It will be handsomely illustrated with 12 fine engravings, and its startling incidents cannot fail to elicit undivided praise. Emerson's Dream, the distinguished Novelist, the favorite of the West, and the author of some of the finest productions ever read, is also engaged to furnish a brilliant Novellellette to follow the above. Mrs. Mary Andrews Denison, author of Home Pictures, Patience, Worship and her Grandmother, &c., will contribute a splendid Domestic Novellette, entitled the "Old Ivy Grove," and H. C. Watson an illustrated Story called the "Two Edged Knife"—a graphic picture of Early Life in Old Kentucky. To these will be added Original Contributions and selections from Mrs. Caroline Lee Hentz, Clara Clairmont, Lili Libor &c., Grace Greene &c., and other distinguished writers; the news of the day, graphic editorials, full reports of the provision, money, and stock markets, letters from travelers at home and abroad, &c., &c.

THE BRITISH PERIODICALS.

AND THE FARMER'S GUIDE.
LEONARD SCOTT & CO.,
No. 54 Gold street, New York,
CONTINUE to publish the four leading British Quarterly Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine; in addition to which they have recently commenced the publication of a valuable Agricultural work, called the
"FARMER'S GUIDE TO SCIENTIFIC AND PRACTICAL AGRICULTURE,"
By HENRY STEPHENS, F. R. S., of Edinburgh, author of the "Book of the Farm," &c., &c.; assisted by J. M. A. N. HAYES, Professor of Scientific Agriculture in Yale College, &c., &c.
This highly valuable work will comprise two large royal octavo volumes, containing over 1400 pages, with 18 or 20 splendid steel engravings, and more than a million engravings on wood, in the highest style of art, illustrating almost every implement of husbandry now in use by the best farmers; the best methods of plowing, planting, haying, harvesting, &c., &c.; the various domestic animals in their highest perfection; in short the pictorial feature of the book is unique, and will render it of incalculable value to the student of Agriculture.

This work is being published in Semi-monthly Numbers, of 64 pages each, exclusive of the Steel engravings, and is sold at 25 cents each, or $5 for the entire work in numbers, of which there will be at least twenty-two.

The British Periodicals Re-published are as follows, viz:

The London Quarterly Review (Conservative).
The Edinburgh Review (Whig).
The North British Review (Free Church).
The Westminster Review (Liberal), and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory).
Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, AFTER IT HAS BEEN ISSUED BY MESSRS. SCOTT & CO., so that subscribers to the reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the EARLIEST READING of these fascinating tales.

TERMS.

For any one of the four Reviews $3 00
" or any two " do 5 00
" or any three " do 6 00
For all four of the Reviews 8 00
For Blackwood's Magazine 3 00
For Blackwood and three Reviews 9 00
For Blackwood and four Reviews 10 00
For Farmer's Guide (complete in 22 Nos) 00
(Payment to be made in all cases in advance.)

CLUBBING

At twenty five per cent. from the above prices will be allowed to Clubs ordering four or more copies of any one or more of the above works. Thus: 4 copies of Blackwood or of one Review will be sent to one address for $9; 4 copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $30; and so on.

Orders from Clubs must be sent direct to the publishers, as no discount from these prices can be allowed to Agents.

CABINET MAKING.

THE SUBSCRIBER would respectfully announce to the citizens of Lebanon and Marion county that he still continues to manufacture on the most reasonable terms, and in the most workmanlike manner, all articles usually kept in establishments of the kind; such as:

Fine, Marble-top, and common Bureaus,
Fine and common Bedsteads, all sizes,
Spring Mattresses,
Tables, large and small, &c., &c.

All of which he will sell on as reasonable terms as they can be bought for in any town in Kentucky. Than for past favors, I would solicit, and hope to deserve by punctuality to business, a continuance of the patronage hitherto extended to me.

1858 ELEVENTH YEAR OF THE LOUISVILLE WEEKLY COURIER.

Acknowledged by general consent to be the Largest, Best and Cheapest Newspaper in the West.

In issuing the Eleventh Prospectus of the Louisville Weekly Courier, we have great pleasure in announcing that Mr. Wm. D. Gallagher, Esq., has purchased an interest in the establishment, and he will hereafter be associated with us in its management. Mr. Gallagher is widely known as an able political and literary writer and a gentleman of cultivated taste, and being thoroughly Western in his education, habits and associations, and conversant with our Railroad and Manufacturing interests, we flatter ourselves that he will add largely to the value and interest of the Courier, and that it will be more acceptable to its thousands of readers in every section of the great Mississippi Valley.

The Louisville Weekly Courier, Edited and Published by
W. D. GALLAGHER & W. N. HALDEMAN,
Is one of the largest, best and best papers in the Union, and for the quantity and quality of matter it contains and the great care taken in its preparation, it is beyond all question

The Cheapest Paper in the West!
As a NEWSPAPER, its character is well established. Our readers of many years will bear witness that for enterprise, energy and reliability, it has borne the palm from all its contemporaries in Kentucky. It is almost invariably ahead in the publication of important news. It procures news of interest from all quarters, both by telegraph and private express, up to the very moment of publication, and entirely regardless of expense.

As a Commercial Paper, the Courier stands without a rival in Louisville. The gentleman who has had charge of the Commercial Department for the last six years, and whose entire time is devoted to it, has no superior, and his reports may always be regarded as accurate and reliable.

As a Literary Paper, we intend that it shall hereafter occupy much higher ground than heretofore. The Tales and Novellettes we publish will alone be worth ten times the price of the paper.

The Miscellaneous and Agricultural Departments will meet with all necessary attention. They will be both full and useful.

In Politics, the Courier will continue firmly Whig; but while advocating Whig measures and Whig principles, we do not intend to do so to the exclusion of our usual variety. Our readers may rest assured that they will not be surfeited with politics through our columns.

Early in January we will commence the publication of the Original Stories: The Martyr of the Heart, by Miss MATTIE GRIFFITH; The Little Cripple and his Foster Mother, by ALICE STANLEY, A lady of Kentucky, whose literary productions have been greatly admired.

By adopting the Cash System, and strictly adhering to it, we are enabled to still further reduce the price of our paper, and will hereafter furnish it, large as it is, at the following

Unprecedentedly low Rates.

No copy of the Weekly Courier,

Entered according to act of Congress, in the year 1851, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D. in the Clerk's Office of the District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Another Scientific Wonder.

GREAT CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA!
DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S
PEPSIN,

THE TRUE
DIGESTIVE FLUID,

GASTRIC JUICE!

Prepared from Rectum, or the Fourth Stomach, of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebig, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., Philadelphia, Pa.
"DIGEST" Such is the true meaning of the word PEPsin. It is the chief element, or great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming a true Digestive Fluid, precise like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it.

This is Nature's own Remedy for an unhealthy Stomach. No art of man can equal its curative powers. It contains no Alcohol, Bitters, Acids, or Narcotic Drugs. It is extremely agreeable to the taste, and may be taken by the most feeble patients who cannot eat a winter cracker without acute distress. Beware of Drugged Imitations. Pepsin is not a Drug. Half a teaspoonful of Pepsin infused in water, will digest or dissolve five pounds of Roast Beef in about two hours, out of the stomach.

Scientific Evidence.

The Scientific Evidence upon which this Remedy is based is in the highest degree curious and remarkable.
Call on the Agent and get a Descriptive Circular, gratis, giving a large amount of scientific evidence, from Leibig's Animal Chemistry; Dr. Combe's Physiology of Digestion; Dr. Penzance on Food and Diet; Dr. John W. Draper of New York University; Prof. Dauglish's Physiology; Prof. Silliman of Yale College; Dr. Carpenter's Physiology, &c., &c., together with reports of cures from all parts of the United States.

Pepsin in Fluid and Powder.

DR. HOUGHTON'S PEPsin is prepared in powder and in Fluid Form—and in prescription vials for the use of Physicians. The powder will be sent by mail free of Postage, for one dollar sent to Dr. Houghton, Philadelphia.

OBSERVE THIS!—Every bottle of the genuine Pepsin bears the written signature of J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., sole proprietor, Philadelphia Pa. Copy-right and Trade mark secured.

Sold by all Druggists and dealers in Medicine. Price ONE DOLLAR per bottle.

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

This Magazine has already reached a regular monthly issue of more than 100,000 copies; and is still steadily and rapidly increasing. The Publishers have endeavored, by a well-directed use of the abundant resources at their command, to render it the most attractive and most useful Magazine for popular reading in the world; and the extent to which their efforts have been successful is indicated by the fact, that it has attained a greater circulation than any similar periodical ever issued.

Special efforts will be made to render it still more interesting and valuable during the present year. In addition to the usual ample and choice selections of Foreign and Domestic Literature, an increased amount of Original Matter, by the ablest American Writers, will be hereafter furnished. The number of Pictorial embellishments will be increased; still greater variety will be given to its literary contents; its Editorial and Miscellaneous departments will be still further enlarged and strengthened; and no labor or expense will be spared to render it in every way, and in all respects, still more worthy of the extraordinary favor with which it has been received.

Harper's New Monthly Magazine owes its success to the fact, that it presents more reading matter, of a better quality, in a more elegant style, and at a cheaper rate, than any other publication.

Subscribers in any part of the United States may now receive the Magazine by mail for three cents a number, or thirty-six cents a year postage, either of the Publishers, Booksellers, or Periodical Agents.

Each number of the Magazine will contain 144 octavo pages, in double columns once year thus comprising nearly two thousand pages of the choicest Miscellaneous Literature of the day. Every Number will contain numerous Pictorial Illustrations, accurate Plates of the Fashions, a copious Chronicle of Current Events, and impartial Notices of the important Books of the month. The volumes commence with the numbers for June and December; but Subscriptions may commence with any number.

TERMS.—The Magazine may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agents, or from the Publishers at three dollars a year or twenty-five cents a number. Numbers from the commencement can be supplied at any time.

Address "Harper's Magazine, New York," post paid.

COLUMBIAN AND GREAT WEST

PROGRAMME FOR 1851.

The continuation of our excellencies of Western Romances and Tales.

Mr. Bennett's Forrest Rose will be followed by a domestic story of Western life, founded on facts, entitled

ELLA WINSTON;
Or, the Adventures of an Orphan Girl.

By WALTER WHITMORE, Esq., Author of "Ainslie," the "Maid of the Inn," "Love and Retribution," and other popular tales.

Mr. Whitmore is an accomplished scholar, as well as a polished and energetic writer, and his "Ella Winston" is pronounced, by good judges, to be equal if not superior to the best Western Novel ever written.

Ella Winston will be succeeded by GERALD LINCOLN; by Miss A. S. St. Clair, author of "Sonora Incr," &c.

It is enough for us to say that this production is worthy of Miss St. Clair's reputation. To be finished in four numbers.

We take pleasure in informing our readers that, at a very large expense, we have succeeded in effecting an engagement with MRS. E. D. N. SOUTHWORTH.

We are further much gratified in being able to announce that we are promised another historical novel by

EMERSON BENNETT, ESQ., the incidents to be connected with the Revolutionary war. This will be ready the ensuing spring.

Each of the tales we have mentioned will be completed in a few weeks, and will not only be free from all that could offend a pure and cultivated taste, but will convey instructive and useful lessons.

L. A. HINE, ESQ.,

will immediately resume his valuable articles upon

THE RESOURCES OF THE WEST.
